

Dixie

First Verse

*I'm glad I am in the Land of Cotton, old times here are not forgotten;
Look away, look away, look away, Dixie Land.
In Dixie Land where I was born, early on one frosty morning;
Look away, look away, look away, Dixie Land.*

Chorus

*Yes, I'm glad I am in Dixie, hooray! hooray!
In Dixie Land I'll take my stand, to live and die in Dixie;
Away, away, away down South in Dixie,
Away, away, away down South in Dixie.*

Second Verse

*The South's a land of special places, gentle people, smiling faces;
Look away, look away, look away, Dixie Land.
Magnolia blossoms, steamy bayous, it's the place we all come home to;
Look away, look away, look away, Dixie Land.*

About UDC Membership

The UDC is the oldest patriotic organization in the United States. Two of our main objectives are to honor the memory of our ancestors, those who served the Confederacy, and to preserve the true history of the War Between the States.

Knoxville Chapter 89 was organized in 1896 and has continued without interruption. The Chapter owns and operates Confederate Memorial Hall, its museum and library, and holds its meetings at the Hall.

Most people in this area have Confederate ancestors. We will help you find them! We also have associate memberships. If you are interested in knowing more about us, please visit our web site at www.knoxvillecmh.org or telephone the current president, Shirley Rouse, at 865.531.1467.

This special event is due to the efforts of GINNIE GOODMAN and Knoxville Chapter 89, UDC.

We sincerely salute Ms. Goodman. In spite of severe personal hardships, she persevered to accomplish this dedication.
